We write to respectfully request that Robert W. Fischer, Jr., Esq. of Fulbright & Jaworski, LLP, be removed as counsel of record for Staples, Inc., in the above-listed matters. Mr. Fischer no longer represents Staples in this matter. Because Mr. Fischer is pro hac vice counsel, he needs to be formally removed as counsel of record to avoid incurring additional annual assessments for the New Jersey Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection.

McCarter & English, LLP, continues to represent Staples along with pro hac vice counsel from Seyfarth Shaw LLP.

Respectfully Submitted,

Adam N. Saravay
